

Ticker Briefs for week of July 21, 2008:

1. Image: Diversity & Rehabilitation Service Delivery logo: Diversity & Rehabilitation Service Delivery. Offered online with open registration, this course delivers the goods on rehabilitation and diversity. Completely self-paced. Only $60.00 gets you three (3) continuing education credits. Click here for details & registration!
2. Image: AIR Austin logo: knowbility.org announced today its 11th annual AIR Austin rally scheduled for October 18, 2008. AIR (Accessibility Internet Rally) pairs non-profit organizations with a team of web developers to build custom websites using web standards & guidelines that ensure accessibility for all users. In 2007 AIR Austin created 13 accessible web sites for Austin-area non-profits. Registration for non-profits & development teams is now available. Click here for details!
3. Image: National Council on Disability: Emerging Trends Public Consultation: The NCD has extended the closing date for comments on emerging issues & trends affecting the lives of individuals with disabilities. The organization is seeking feedback on a variety of issues including health, housing, insurance, transportation, etc. The new deadline is August 7, 2008. Click this story to find out how you can participate.
4. Image: OAR (Organization for Autism Research): Autism. UNTWISE is proud to offer a 3-part series on Autism presented by the President of the Organization for Autism Research, Dr. Peter Gerhardt. The series begins August 15 and will be presented in Webinar format. Cost for the series is $60 and attendance is eligible for 3 continuing education credits. Click here for details & registration.
5. Image: SAMHSA: Let's Talk About It - 1-800-273-TALK. The Veterans Suicide Prevention Hotline launched last summer through a collaborative effort between the Department of Veterans Affairs & the Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), has served over 55,000 callers, almost half of who were family members of veterans in crisis. There is help.